

Block the Vote Hero

www.BillionairesForBush.com

Suzie Haik-Terrell

Former U.S. Senate Candidate,
Louisiana

In 2002, black children were paid $75 to hold signs aloft on street corners in poorer neighborhoods to discourage black voter turnout. The signs, targeting Suzie's competitor, said: "Mary, if you don't respect us, don't expect us."

